Policy:

In accordance with Article 18.03.3, the University will pay the employee who supervises an Honours Thesis.

- 1. The University pays the person designated by the Department as the honours thesis supervisor.
- 2. The University will pay the employee upon the successful completion of the thesis and the submission of the grade.
- 3. Payment will be made as a one-time lump sum payment, added to the employee's normal bi-weekly pay at the appropriate time.
- 4. In cases where no final grade is a available, the faculty member who supervised the honours thesis can appeal to the Vice-President (Academic), supplying evidence that the supervision was carried out as required.
