ARTICLE 2 GENERAL PROVISIONS OF THE AGREEMENT

2.01 Purpose of the Agreement

The purpose of the Agreement is to promote and maintain harmonious relations between the Employer and Employees, and to provide an amicable method of settling differences or grievances that may arise from time to time between the Parties. The Parties both recognize that the purposes of the University include providing a facility for higher education through teaching, research, and service. Both Parties agree to work cooperatively towards developing the quality and effectiveness of the education provided by the University, and to encourage a climate of justice, freedom, responsibility and mutual respect in the pursuit of the University's goals.

2.02 Validity

All provisions of the Agreement are subject to applicable laws now or hereafter in effect. If any proclamation, regulation, federal, or provincial law now existing or hereafter enacted shall invalidate any portion of the Agreement, the remainder of the Agreement shall not be invalidated and shall remain in full effect.

2.03 Provisions of the Industrial Relations Act

All provisions of the Industrial Relations Act of the Province of New Brunswick required for inclusion in Collective Agreements are deemed to be incorporated in this Agreement.

2.04 Academic Freedom

2.04.1 The Employer and the Union agree to abide by and protect the principles of academic freedom as expressed below.

St. Thomas University serves the common good of society, through searching for, and disseminating, knowledge, and understanding and through fostering independent thinking and expression in faculty and students. These ends cannot be achieved without academic freedom. All faculty have a right to academic freedom. Academic freedom makes intellectual discourse, critique, and commitment possible.

2.04.2 Employees shall have:

- (i) freedom of discussion, freedom to criticize, including criticism of the University and the Union, freedom from censorship by the Parties, and freedom to consider and study all available expressions of creativity, knowledge, and intellectual activity, including those which may be considered by some elements of society to be unconventional, unpopular or unacceptable;
- (ii) freedom in the choice and pursuit of research, and freedom to publish and to withhold publication of the results and conclusions of such research;
- (iii) freedom in the choice and pursuit of teaching, and to state their views on matters relating to their discipline;

- (iv) freedom to produce and perform creative works;
- (v) freedom to engage in service to the University and the community;
- (vi) freedom to participate in professional and representative academic bodies; and
- (vii) freedom to contribute to social change through free expression of opinion on matters of public interest.

2.04.3 Academic freedom does not require neutrality; rather, academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a manner consistent with the scholarly obligation to base research, teaching and scholarship on an honest search for knowledge, and with regard to the academic freedom and rights of other members of the University community. Academic freedom does not confer legal immunity, nor does it diminish the obligation of Employees to meet their responsibilities to the University. Employees shall not be hindered or impeded in any way, by either of the Parties to this Agreement, from exercising their legal rights, nor shall they suffer any penalties because of the exercise of such legal rights.

2.05 No Discrimination and Duty to Accommodate

2.05.1 No Discrimination

The Parties agree that there shall be no discrimination practised in respect of any terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, consistent with existing federal and provincial legislation. The proscribed grounds include, but are not limited to, race, colour, religion, national origin, ancestry, place of origin, sex, marital status, place of residence, personal life style, family relationship, sexual orientation, political affiliation or activity, physical and/or mental disability, social condition, age, membership or activity in the Union, or the exercise of any right in this Agreement or in law, except where such factor is a bona fide condition of employment.

2.05.2 Duty to Accommodate

The Parties agree that there will be accommodation for Employees with disabilities, including, but not limited to, mental and physical disabilities whether permanent or temporary, through adjustment to the terms and conditions of employment or the physical environment which may be required as per existing federal and provincial legislation.

2.06 Full and Fair Consideration

2.06.1 The Employer and the Union agree to abide by the principle of full and fair consideration in any and all proceedings under the terms of this Agreement. In order to assure full consideration of recommendations and decisions under this Agreement, all relevant evidence shall be considered. In order to assure fair consideration, all recommendations and decisions shall be made without bias, discrimination, or infringement of academic freedom, and they shall be based on the proper application of the criteria established in this Agreement.

2.06.2 In order to facilitate full and fair consideration in all hearings and arbitration proceedings permitted under this Agreement, no such proceedings shall be deemed invalid because of any defect in form or any technical irregularity.

2.06.3 The dates for recommendations and decisions in this Agreement are arranged to facilitate full and fair consideration. In unusual circumstances where pressure of time makes full and fair consideration impossible without extension of deadlines, individuals or Chairs of committees may request such an extension by writing to the University President and the President of the Union, giving reasons for the request and proposing a new deadline. If warranted, the Union and the Employer may agree to an extension of the deadline to a later date.

2.06.4 When a deadline is extended under Article 2.06.3, all subsequent deadlines concerning the same case shall automatically be extended by the same number of days.

2.07 Amendments to the Act of Incorporation and the By-Laws

Any proposal by the Employer to amend the act of incorporation of St. Thomas University or those by-laws of the University which relate either to the academic senate or to faculty representation on the Board of Governors shall require prior consultation with, but not the approval of, the Union.

2.08 Correspondence

All correspondence between the Employer and the Union, which gives notice to the other Party or represents a commitment or undertaking pursuant to the Agreement, shall pass to and from the President of the University and the President of the Union. Other matters involving the negotiation and administration of the Agreement may pass between other designated officials representing the Parties.

2.09 Copies of the Agreement

The Employer shall include a copy of this Agreement on the University's web page as soon as possible and provide a print copy to all members of the Bargaining Unit.

2.10 Management Rights

2.10.1 Subject to this Agreement, the Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the University to hire, promote and classify Employees and also the right of the University to discipline, suspend or discharge any Employee for just cause.

2.10.2 The University has retained and shall possess and exercise all rights and functions, powers, privileges and authority that the University possessed prior to the signing of this Agreement with the Union, excepting only those that are relinquished or restricted in this Agreement.

2.10.3 Where an Employer policy conflicts with, is inconsistent with, or interferes with any of the terms and conditions of this Agreement, this Agreement shall be followed.

2.11 Continuation of Rights

The Employer agrees to exercise its management functions in a just and reasonable manner and, in so doing, to maintain all reasonable and established benefits in terms and conditions of employment enjoyed by any Employee, unless such benefits are modified by this Agreement or by mutual consent. It is agreed that the level at which support services and facilities are maintained may be adjusted from time to time, provided that such adjustment be justified and provided that reasonable notice of such adjustment be given.

2.12 Right to Privacy

- 2.12.1 Upon its coming into force, the Employer and Employees must abide by the New Brunswick Right to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, R.S.N.B. c. R-10.6, as may be amended.
- 2.12.2 Employees have a right to privacy in their personal and professional communications and files, including but not limited to any communication on paper or in an electronic form. The level of privacy does not exceed, however, that of reasonable expectations which must be balanced with the Employer's right to manage the workplace and its obligation to provide a safe and secure working environment.
- 2.12.3 The Employer reserves the right to monitor and access computer accounts in order to maintain the integrity of the computer system in a secure and reasonable manner and to further its legitimate interests and legal obligations by ensuring use of the system is lawful and reasonable in an academic workplace. Personal use of the Internet shall not be a violation of this Article absent advance notification with reasons from the Employer that either the quantity or nature of the usage constitutes a violation. For clarity, all use is subject to Article 2.04 (Academic Freedom). Only authorized personnel in the performance of their employment duties may access and monitor the use of information technology and computing facilities.
- 2.12.4 The Employer shall treat Employee communications and files as private and shall not allow Third Parties to examine Employee communications and files or disclose Employee information to a Third Party unless it is the subject of a subpoena or summons served on the University, or the examination or disclosure is otherwise required by law. "Third Party" refers to persons and legal entities not acting on behalf of the Employer. Authorization for the examination or disclosure of Employee communications, files or information under this clause requires the prior approval of the Vice-President (Academic and Research). The Union shall be notified immediately of any examination or disclosure of information under this clause and the circumstances leading to that disclosure, unless the examination or disclosure is part of an on-going criminal or statutory investigation by a Third Party that could be jeopardized by such immediate notification.
- 2.12.5 Subject to Article 2 (General Provisions of the Agreement), Employees have the right not to be put under surveillance. This right not to be watched by the Employer includes non-electronic surveillance, electronic eavesdropping or video cameras, and any kind of computer surveillance or other devices. This right does not apply in situations of potential danger or threats to the members of the University community. Undisclosed surveillance by the Employer shall only be conducted as a last resort and after all other reasonable alternatives have been exhausted. Undisclosed surveillance by the Employer shall be conducted in a reasonable manner, proportional to the Employer's legitimate interests in providing a safe and secure working environment, and where authorized by law.

- 2.12.6 Any evidence obtained through surveillance shall not be used in disciplinary matters unless obtained in compliance with this Article or from a law enforcement agency.
- 2.12.7 The Parties recognize that the safety of employees, staff, students and the general public may require the violation of individual privacy for the installation of video cameras, audio recorders or other monitoring devices in public access areas of the campus such as parking lots, walkways, building entrances, exits and hallways. Any areas subject to such surveillance must be identified by posted notice to that effect. For greater clarity, University classrooms, other areas used for teaching purposes (not including space outside University buildings), Employees' offices, the Union office, work space and laboratories are not considered public access areas.
- 2.12.8 The Joint Committee shall recommend procedures to govern who has the authority to initiate surveillance, the duration of any surveillance, where images or audio recordings shall be stored, who shall have access to such recordings, and how long such recordings shall be retained.
- 2.12.9 In developing its recommendation for surveillance procedures, the Joint Committee shall make reasonable provisions to protect the health, safety and security of Employees.
- 2.12.10 The Employer shall maintain a log-book of all surveillance and give access to this log-book to the Union upon request. However, surveillance that is part of an on-going investigation shall not be entered in the log-book until the investigation is complete if doing so would likely undermine the effectiveness of the investigation. The log-book shall indicate who initiated the surveillance, the location of the surveillance, the duration of the surveillance, and the location in which the images or audio recordings are being stored.
- 2.12.11 Subject to Article 10.05, information obtained through surveillance devices and practices shall not be used in any evaluation of an Employee's teaching, research or service, in any promotion proceeding, nor shall it be made part of an Employee's Academic file.

2.13 Collegial Rights

The Parties recognize the importance of the academic, personnel, and governance processes as set out in the St. Thomas University Act and will work together to promote collegiality.

2.14 Copyright/Intellectual Property

- 2.14.1 The Parties agree that Employees have no obligation to seek intellectual property protection for the results of their work, nor to modify their scholarly endeavours to enhance the ability of their work to be protected.

- 2.14.2 Employees have the right to and are encouraged to discuss and publish the results of their scholarly endeavours as fully as may be reasonably possible.
- 2.14.3 The University, in keeping with long-standing academic custom, recognizes the ownership by the Employee of copyright in traditional works of authorship such as, textbooks; scholarly monographs and articles; bibliographies; glossaries; lectures and laboratory notes; works of non-fiction; artistic works such as dramatic works and performances; musical or dramatic compositions and performances; visual works of art; sculpture; and poetry, whether such works are disseminated visually, in print, or electronically.
- 2.14.4 Unless governed by specific contracts to the contrary, the University recognizes the ownership by the Employee of copyright in computer programmes and technologically mediated courses, including, but not limited to: correspondence course packages; broadcast courses; interactive textbooks; course work delivered on the Internet; multimedia instructional packages and programmed instructional material.
- 2.14.5 The Employee shall grant to the Employer a non-exclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable and non-transferable right to use, solely for the University's internal use and programmes, any intellectual property developed by the members when such intellectual property results from the use of the University's time, funds, facilities, support or technical personnel. Such right, however, shall not include the right to license or exploit the intellectual property for any purpose other than the internal use of the University.
- 2.14.6 The University recognizes the ownership by the Employee of copyright in course outlines, assessment, grading, reports or correspondence pursuant to the Employee's teaching. The Employee shall grant the University a perpetual license to use these materials in the course of its normal administrative, non-commercial business.
- 2.14.7 Neither the Employer nor the Employee shall enter into any agreement with a third party which alters or abridges the intellectual property rights of the other, without the other's written consent.
- 2.15 Technologically-Mediated Instruction
- 2.15.1 Technologically-mediated credit or non-credit courses (or modifications thereof) shall only be developed as part of the curriculum offerings of existing Departments or Programmes, or of offerings agreed between Departments and Programmes for interdisciplinary credit courses and shall comply with the practices, procedures and criteria which have been established at St. Thomas University for the creation by Departments and Programmes of in-classroom credit courses. The textbooks and learning materials for courses which are to be technologically mediated shall be selected in the same manner as they are for traditional courses.
- 2.15.2 Technologically-mediated instruction shall not be used by the Employer to reduce or eliminate full-time academic positions at the University. No Employee shall be assigned to develop or to deliver a technologically-mediated course without the prior written agreement of the Employee. The agreement shall be delivered by the Employer to the Union within two (2) weeks of signing.

- 2.15.3 Employees engaged in technologically-mediated courses shall have academic freedom as teachers and researchers as stipulated in this Agreement including full freedom in discussing their subject. Oversight or review of courses shall be made according to procedures and regulations established by the Department or Programme and by the Senate and shall be consistent with Article 2.04 (Academic Freedom) of this Agreement. Employees shall be free to submit technologically-mediated courses they have created as evidence to the appropriate evaluation committee concerned with the granting of tenure or promotion.

- 4.03 Requests for teaching resources, beyond those allocated by the appropriate Dean on an annual basis, shall be communicated by the Department Chair to the appropriate Dean.
- 4.04 The decision of the appropriate Dean on such requests for teaching resources shall be communicated in writing to the Department, with reasons in the event of a negative decision, within fifteen (15) Days of receiving the recommendation.

ARTICLE 5 APPOINTMENTS

5.01 All Part-time Faculty Members are appointed by the University, and in accordance with the provisions of Articles 2.04 (Academic Freedom), 2.05.1 (No Discrimination) and 2.06 (Full and Fair Consideration). All Appointments of Part-time Faculty Members are authorized by the appropriate Dean.

5.02 Types of Appointments

5.02.1 Part-time faculty covered by this Agreement shall be appointed under one of the following types of appointments:

- a) Schedule A Probationary Appointment refers to an appointment to teach during the probationary period. The probationary period for new Schedule A Employees shall be the period of time required for the Employee to teach six (6) credit hours. Seniority credits under Article 5.03.2 (Seniority) shall accrue for all courses taught during the probationary period and shall become effective for determining seniority upon successful completion of the probationary period. The appropriate Dean shall ensure that the evaluation of teaching performance under Article 8 shall be conducted at the end of the probationary period.
- b) Schedule A Appointment refers to an appointment to teach three (3) or more credit hours during the Academic Year to a maximum of eighteen (18) credit hours during the Teaching Year.
- c) Schedule B Appointment refers to an appointment to teach, conduct research, provide service, or any combination of the foregoing as a designated percent of a full-time workload.
- d) Regular Appointment refers to an appointment without a specified term and recognizes a pattern of teaching over a defined period of time.
 - (i) An Employee shall receive a Regular Appointment if:
 - (a) she or he has taught over a period of six (6) years, and has taught an average of nine (9) credit hours over the three (3) Teaching Years immediately prior to the appointment, or;
 - (b) a minimum of six (6) credit hours in three (3) consecutive Teaching Years in the five (5) years immediately prior to the appointment.

The Employee shall receive a Regular Appointment in each Department in which they have taught and received a satisfactory evaluation of teaching performance under Article 8 within the twelve (12) month period prior to January 15. The Deans shall ensure that all evaluations are completed under Article 8.

On or before January 15, the appropriate Dean shall inform the Chairs of the names of Employees in their respective Departments who are entitled to a Regular Appointment, and the anticipated workload for each Employee (subject to Article 5.12) for the upcoming Teaching Year. At the same time, the appropriate Dean shall also inform each Employee of her or his Regular Appointment and of the anticipated workload under that appointment (subject to Article 5.12) for the upcoming Teaching Year.

- (ii) A Regular Appointment shall be an appointment to teach a workload equivalent to at least the average workload over the three (3) Teaching Years immediately prior to the appointment. In the event an Employee was on approved leave during one (1) of the three (3) Teaching Years immediately prior to the appointment, the appointment shall be to teach a workload equivalent to the average workload over the best three (3) of the previous four (4) Teaching Years.
- (iii) If the Employee's Regular Appointment workload as determined under this Article is based on courses taught in more than one (1) Department, the Employee shall receive a Regular Appointment to teach a workload in each Department on a proportional basis. Where the proportional basis would result in partial course workloads in two (2) or more Departments, the Employee shall choose between the Departments with respect to that portion of the workload. In no circumstances will the total workload for an Employee in all Departments exceed the average number of courses taught by that Employee in the previous three (3) years, or best three (3) of four (4) years in the case of an Employee who received approved leave as noted above. The proportional workload received by Regular Appointment Employees who teach in more than one (1) Department shall be fixed at the proportion received at the time of initial appointment, unless the workload of the Regular Appointment in one of the Departments is reduced as per Article 5.12.1.
- (iv) The minimum average workload for an Employee with a Regular Appointment shall be comprised of courses available to be taught during the Teaching Year by Part-time faculty after the allocation of courses to Full-time faculty is complete. Courses may be chosen from those previously taught by the Employee and/or that the Employee is qualified to teach in accordance with Article 5.03 (Criteria for Appointments) and shall be assigned by the appropriate Dean after application of Article 5.05.1. If two (2) or more Employees with Regular Appointments are qualified to teach a course in accordance with Article 5.03 (Criteria for Appointments), the course shall be assigned according to the Seniority Appointment Procedures (Article 5.05.7).
- (v) Subject to Article 5.12.5, the Deans shall ensure that when courses are assigned to Full-time faculty, there are sufficient courses remaining that Regular Appointment Employees are qualified to teach so that Regular Appointment Employees maintain their minimum average workload.

- (vi) An Employee with a Regular Appointment may obtain a Full-time Limited-Term Appointment. At the conclusion of a Full-time Limited-Term Appointment, an Employee shall resume her or his Regular Appointment. When the Employee is being considered for course assignments covered by this Agreement, she or he shall be consulted on the assignment of her or his courses according to the allocation procedures in Article 5.05.1.
- (vii) An Employee is not obliged to accept a Regular Appointment and may opt to teach the courses on a per course appointment basis in accordance with Articles 5.05.7 (Seniority Appointment Procedures) and 5.06 (PTAC Recommendation Procedures). The Regular Appointment Employee shall notify the appropriate Dean by January 31 if she or he opts to teach the courses on a per course appointment basis.
- (viii) Where, after receiving a Regular Appointment, an Employee declines to work the minimum average workload under her or his Regular Appointment in a particular Teaching Year, the Employee shall not be assigned courses during the Regular Appointment course assignment process for that Teaching Year, but she or he may access unstaffed courses in accordance with Articles 5.05.7 (Seniority Appointment Procedures) and 5.06 (PTAC Recommendation Procedures). The Regular Appointment Employee shall notify the appropriate Dean by January 31 if she or he declines to work the minimum average workload under her or his Regular Appointment in a particular Teaching Year.
- (ix) An Employee, who obtains a Full-time Limited-Term Appointment and subsequently returns to the Part-time unit, shall be able to count the teaching years and number of courses taught as a Full-time Employee toward the minimum average workload of the Regular Appointment (Article 5.02 d) (ii)).
- (x) The Parties agree that credits for Regular Appointments shall be calculated from 1985.

5.03 Criteria for Appointments

5.03.1 The following outlines the criteria for consideration by the PTAC (Article 5.04) in making assessments of qualifications for internal appointments (Article 5.06.1) and external appointments (Article 5.06.2):

- (a) academic credentials in the discipline or a closely related field of scholarship, including degrees, special studies and honours (academic credentials shall normally be a minimum of a Master's degree);
- (b) demonstrated teaching performance;

- (c) scholarly productivity, including research, publications, and work of creative or cultural significance.

5.03.2 Seniority

- 5.03.2.1 The Parties agree that an Employee who has previously taught a course satisfactorily is deemed qualified to teach that course under Article 5.03.1.
- 5.03.2.2 Employees accrue course-specific seniority each time they satisfactorily complete an appointment to teach a course. Employees shall also accrue overall University seniority, which is the sum of all course-specific seniorities. A course shall be deemed to have been satisfactorily completed if the requirements of Article 9.05 (Professional Responsibilities and Workload) are met. If a course(s) for which an Employee has seniority changes only as a result of a modification to a course number, title, or a change in the number of credits, and the course content goals are not changed, then the course-specific seniority shall be applied to the new course(s). If a six-credit hour course is divided into two (2) three-credit hour courses, the seniority for the six-credit hour course shall be divided equally between the two (2) three-credit hour courses. Where an Employee teaches part of a course, seniority shall be prorated in accordance with Article 5.08.4.1.
- 5.03.2.3 An Employee shall retain seniority for thirty-six (36) months from the end date of the last appointment. An Employee with seniority shall retain her or his rights under the Collective Agreement.
- 5.03.2.4 Seniority shall not be lost or reduced for any reason except dismissal, resignation, or expiry of seniority as per Article 5.03.2.3. Seniority shall become effective subject to successful completion of the probationary period as per Article 5.02.1 a) (Schedule A Probationary).
- 5.03.2.5 Resignation from an appointment to teach a course or part thereof shall result in no seniority being accrued for that particular course.
- 5.03.2.6 Failure to finish an appointment due to illness, or injury, or where compassionate leave is authorized pursuant to Article 16.02 (Compassionate Leave), shall not result in loss of seniority for that course.
- 5.03.2.7 A Schedule A or a Regular Appointment Employee who has seniority, and who obtains a Full-time Limited-Term Appointment who subsequently returns to the Part-time unit shall be able to count up to eighteen (18) credit hours toward seniority. The Employee, upon returning to the Part-time unit, shall identify the courses taught as a Full-time Employee for which seniority shall be applied.

5.03.3 Seniority List

The Deans shall maintain a seniority list for each Department. The list shall specify the Employee's name, overall University seniority, and course-specific seniority. The Deans shall provide each Department with a copy of the seniority list with copies sent to the Union by October 31 of each year. The seniority list shall include all courses being taught up to and including December 31 of that year. The seniority list shall be used for all appointments issued after January 1 of the following year. The Union shall advise the appropriate Dean of any discrepancies by December 1.

- 5.03.4 If the Union fails to notify the appropriate Dean of any discrepancies by December 1, then any dispute arising from an error in the seniority list shall not be subject to grievance by the Union. If, subsequent to December 1, it is determined that a course for which a member was credited with seniority for purposes of Article 5.03.3 was not satisfactorily completed, the seniority list shall be adjusted and the seniority credit shall be reduced accordingly.

5.04 Part-time Appointments Committee (PTAC)

- 5.04.1 Each Department or Programme with part-time course offerings shall have a Part-time Appointments Committee (PTAC). This Committee shall be composed of a minimum of three (3) Full-time Members from the Department. The Department Chair or Programme Director may be a member of the PTAC, but does not have to be. In cases where it is not possible to have three (3) eligible Members, additional committee members shall be selected by agreement between the Department and the appropriate Dean.
- 5.04.2 The Committee's role shall be to ensure a fair assessment and appointment process for internal and external appointments. The Committee shall make recommendations on internal and external appointments to the appropriate Dean.
- 5.04.3 Written minutes of Committee meetings shall be kept by the Committee Chair and shall be made available upon request to the Employee, the Union, and the appropriate Dean.

5.05 Procedures

- 5.05.1 After being informed of the staffing allocation, in accordance with Article 4 (Authorization for Part-time Appointments), and in preparation of the course timetable, by February 21 the Department Chair shall propose to the appropriate Dean which courses the Department shall be offering in the upcoming Teaching Year. This list shall identify which courses are being taught by Full-time Members with Probationary, Tenured, and Limited Term Appointments. The remaining courses shall be identified as Part-time courses. Whenever possible, there shall be prior consultation with the Regular Appointment Employees on the assignment of their courses. By March 15 the Department Chair shall identify to the appropriate Dean which of the Part-time courses shall be taught by Regular Appointment Employees. All course assignments for Regular Appointment Employees shall be subject to the approval of the appropriate Dean. The remaining courses on the list shall be identified as unstaffed courses.
- 5.05.1.1 In preparing the proposal for the Intersession and Summer Session timetable, the Department Chair shall send an email to all current Full-time and Part-time Members in her or his Department asking for expressions of interest in teaching in Intersession and Summer Session, with the proviso that there are no guarantees that requests will be granted. By October 22, the Department Chair shall forward to the Intersession Committee a list of courses the Department proposes to offer in the upcoming Intersession and Summer Session, along with the rationale for the proposed courses. The Intersession Committee shall review the lists of proposed courses and make recommendations to the appropriate Dean. The appropriate Dean shall finalize the list of course offerings and this list shall be sent to the Department Chair. The Department Chair shall return the list to the appropriate Dean identifying which courses are being taught by Full-time Members. The remaining courses shall be identified as Part-time courses and shall be staffed according to the provisions of this Agreement.

- 5.05.2 The Deans shall review the list of courses (staffed and unstaffed) and verify that the list is consistent with the staffing allocation.
- 5.05.3 The Department Chair shall provide the appropriate Dean with a paragraph description of each unstaffed course (similar to a calendar course description). The course descriptions shall contain the following information: Department, date of the posting, the course name and number, calendar description, starting time and duration of the course, anticipated approximate class size, the city or town in which the course shall be taught, required qualifications, and application deadline.

Unstaffed Course List

- 5.05.4 The Deans shall ensure that an unstaffed course list is created and maintained. This list shall specify the course name and number and the Employees who have seniority for that course, in order of seniority. This list shall be transmitted to the Departments and the Union by March 20 and, at the same time, posted to the University web site. Moreover, an email notification that the posting has been made shall be sent to all Employees.
- 5.05.5 By March 31, Employees shall send a brief email to the appropriate Dean copied to the Department Chair indicating their willingness to teach, and listing which courses they wish to teach, and how many sections of each, if applicable.
- 5.05.6 Failure by an Employee to provide email notification to the appropriate Dean by March 31 may result in the course being offered to the Employee with the next most seniority who has expressed an interest in teaching it under Article 5.05.5.
 - 5.05.6.1 Failure by an Employee to provide email notification to the appropriate Dean within five (5) Days after March 31 shall result in the course being offered to the Employee with the next most seniority who has expressed an interest in teaching it under Article 5.05.5.
 - 5.05.6.2 If after the application of Article 5.05.6.1, no Employee who has seniority for a course has expressed a willingness to teach that course within five (5) Days of March 31, Article 5.06 (PTAC Recommendation Procedures) shall apply.

5.05.7 Seniority Appointment Procedures

Using the seniority list (Article 5.03.3) and expressions of willingness to teach (Article 5.05.5), and subject to Articles 5.05.6, 5.05.6.1, and 5.05.6.2, the Deans shall apply the following appointment procedures according to seniority:

5.05.7.1 An Employee who has seniority in the course or a substantially similar course (Article 5.03.2.2), and who has maintained satisfactory teaching performance under Article 8 shall be offered the appointment. If more than one (1) Employee has seniority for the course, the Employee who has accumulated the most course-specific seniority in that course shall be offered the appointment.

5.05.7.2 If two (2) or more Employees have equal seniority in the course, overall University seniority shall break the tie.

5.05.7.3 If two (2) or more Employees have equal seniority in the course and equal overall University seniority, the initial hire date shall break the tie.

5.06 PTAC Recommendation Procedures

5.06.1 If after the application of Article 5.05.7 (Seniority Appointment Procedures) there are additional unstaffed courses, the appropriate Dean shall authorize an internal competition for these courses. Employees may apply for an additional course(s) and, if they meet the criteria specified in Article 5.03.1 they shall be considered qualified and shall be recommended. In the event that there are two (2) or more qualified Employees, the following process shall be applied:

(i) Where two (2) or more qualified Employees apply for an additional course, the Employee with the most overall University seniority shall be offered the appointment.

(ii) Where two (2) or more qualified Employees have the same overall University seniority, the initial hire date shall break the tie.

5.06.2 If after the application of Article 5.06.1 there are additional unstaffed courses, the appropriate Dean shall authorize an external competition which shall accept applications from within and outside of the University. External advertisements shall require applicants to submit a curriculum vitae, teaching dossier, and any other relevant documentation and shall specify an application deadline.

5.06.3 Upon receipt of applications, the Department Chair shall arrange for the PTAC to consider all of the applications, following which an interview will be held with one (1) or more candidates. Within fifteen (15) Days of the deadline for application, and following majority approval by the PTAC, the Department Chair shall, in writing, propose a recommendation to the appropriate Dean. The recommendation shall include evidence that the candidate meets the qualifications specified in the job advertisement and meets the criteria as established in Article 5.03.1.

5.06.4 The decision on appointments shall be made by the appropriate Dean who shall not unreasonably reject the recommendation by the Department. The appropriate Dean shall make the decision to accept or reject the Department's recommendation within a reasonable period of time. If the appropriate Dean rejects the Department's recommendation, she or he shall notify the Department Chair in writing with reasons, with a copy to the Member and the Union. The decision of the appropriate Dean shall not be subject to the arbitration procedures set out in this Agreement, unless the grievance to be submitted to arbitration is based on an alleged violation of Articles 2.04 (Academic Freedom), 2.05 (No Discrimination and Duty to Accommodate) or 2.06 (Full and Fair Consideration).

5.07 Appeals Process

5.07.1 When a Member is deemed unqualified to teach a course by the Department, the Department shall so inform the appropriate Dean when it makes its recommendation, and shall supply files of the applicants along with reasons for its recommendation, as well as minutes of the PTAC. The appropriate Dean shall ensure that the name of the recommended candidate is posted. Any applicants deemed unqualified to teach the course by the Department shall have ten (10) Days to appeal to a Joint Part-time Appointments Appeals Committee (JPAAC). The terms of reference and procedures for the JPAAC are contained in Appendix A.

5.08 Letter of Appointment

5.08.1 The appropriate Dean shall provide each Employee with a Letter of Appointment, designating the terms and conditions of that appointment, and shall provide the Union with a copy thereof. A paper copy of the Letter of Appointment shall be sent to each Employee's mailing address and a scanned copy of the letter in portable document format (PDF) shall be sent to her or his email address. The Letter of Appointment shall also indicate whether the appointment is a Schedule A Appointment, Schedule B Appointment, or Regular Appointment. The Schedule B Appointment letter shall state the designated percentage of a full-time workload. On or before April 30, the appropriate Dean shall provide each Employee for whom a course(s) has been assigned, approved, and/or accepted as of that date a Letter of Appointment designating the terms and conditions of that appointment. Additional Letters of Appointment shall be issued if additional courses are assigned, approved, and/or accepted after that date.

5.08.2 The Letter of Appointment shall stipulate that the appointment is subject to this Agreement and shall include the Employee's remuneration, course name, rank, dates of employment, and any special conditions which apply to the Employee.

5.08.3 Any Additional Duties as per Article 9.05.6 beyond those associated with teaching a course or courses, and the remuneration for these duties, shall be stipulated in a separate contract of employment.

5.08.4 The Letter of Appointment shall include the date of commencement and the date of completion. Each Employee shall have her or his stipend paid over the contract period as per current practice. The Employer shall forward a copy of the Letter of Appointment and the Additional Duties Contract to the Union within fifteen (15) Days of the Employee's signing of the contract. A copy of the Letter of Appointment shall be placed in the Academic File and the Personnel File which the Employer shall maintain on each Employee.

5.08.4.1 Where an Employee teaches part of a course, the stipend shall be prorated as follows:

(i) For a course taught over the complete Fall or Winter semester, the number of weeks of the Employee's contract as a proportion of seventeen (17) weeks.

(ii) For a course taught over the entire Teaching Year, the number of weeks of the Employee's contract as a proportion of thirty-four (34) weeks.

(iii) For courses taught over fewer than seventeen (17) weeks, the number of days taught by the Employee as a proportion of the total number of teaching days for the course.

5.08.5 Each Letter of Appointment shall identify the website address(es) where the FAUST Faculty Handbook and the Collective Agreement are located. A hard copy of the Collective Agreement shall be provided to an Employee upon request from that Employee.

5.08.6 Once an Employee has returned a signed letter of appointment, within five (5) Days the name of the person hired shall be posted next to the course listing on the University website and the Employee's name shall be added to the timetable.

5.09 The effective date of appointment shall be determined by the Employer. Each appointment shall be subject to there being sufficient enrolment as determined by the University.

5.10 Reassignment of Part-time Courses to a Full-time Position

If courses taught by an Employee are reassigned to a full-time position at the time the position is posted, the Employee shall have the right to apply for the full-time position if she or he has the qualifications specified in the advertisement. Notwithstanding Article 6.05.3 of the Full-time Agreement, if the Employee is not placed on the short-list to be interviewed for the appointment, the Vice-President (Academic and Research), upon application by the Employee and upon reasonable grounds, may direct that the Employee be interviewed for the appointment. For Regular Appointment Employees who are not hired for the full-time position, Article 5.12.6 shall apply.

5.11 Rank

5.11.1 Rank shall be designated by the Employer as one of:

- c) Associate Professor
- d) Professor

5.11.2 Appointments made by the Employer of Part-time Employees shall normally be at the rank of Lecturer.

- 5.11.3 Part-time faculty with a Ph.D. or equivalent, as determined by the Committee on Appointments, Promotion, and Tenure (CAPT), shall be appointed at the rank of Assistant Professor.
- 5.11.4 All Part-time Employees who hold or who formerly held a specific rank as a Full-time or Part-time Employee, either at St. Thomas University or another University recognized by the Employer, shall retain that rank.

5.12 Lay-off and Recall Procedures – Regular Appointments

- 5.12.1 The Employer may reduce the workload of or lay off a Regular Appointment for bona fide reasons such as:

- (i) shortage of operating funds;
- (ii) a decline in University or departmental enrollment;
- (iii) changes in course enrollment;
- (iv) changes to departmental curriculum authorized by Senate and/or the Senate Curriculum Committee that make it not possible for the appropriate Dean to assign the minimum average workload to a Regular Appointment Employee;
- (v) appointment of a new Full-time Employee (Article 5.10); and
- (vi) the normal changes in course offerings associated with a pattern of course rotation.

- 5.12.2 Where Article 5.12.1 applies, the Employer shall issue an invitation to all Employees within the Department to volunteer to accept a reduction in workload or lay-off. The invitation will be open for 48 hours only to allow the Regular Appointment course allocation process to be completed in a timely fashion. Any voluntary reductions or lay-offs shall be factored into the course allocation procedures set out in 5.12.3. Employees who have volunteered to accept a reduction in workload only will continue to receive their remaining course allocation in order of seniority as set out in 5.12.3. If, after the allocation of courses under 5.12.3, there remain courses available that an Employee who volunteered to accept a reduction in workload or lay-off is qualified to teach, the Employee shall be offered the opportunity to teach those courses, in order of seniority, before the courses are released to the Seniority Appointment Procedures (Article 5.05.7). The Union shall have the right to consult with an Employee prior to voluntary reduction or lay-off.

- 5.12.3 If voluntary reduction or lay-off is insufficient to avoid the need for involuntary reductions or lay-offs pursuant to Article 5.12.1, then reductions and/or lay-offs shall be imposed by the Employer in accordance with the following procedures:

- 5.12.3.1 Subject to Article 5.12.3.3, the Regular Appointment Employee with the least seniority for courses within the Department shall have her or his minimum average workload reduced for the reasons outlined in Article 5.12.1.

- 5.12.3.2 Subject to Article 5.12.3.3, if the reduction in workload of the Regular Appointment Employee identified under Article 5.12.3.1 is insufficient to address the reasons in Article 5.12.1, she or he may be laid off.

- 5.12.3.3 Where an Employee in a Department or program has been identified under Articles 5.12.3.1 or 5.12.3.2 and the remaining Employees in the Department or program do not have the necessary qualifications as per Article 5.03 (Criteria for Appointments) to teach the remaining courses, the provisions of Articles 5.12.3.1 and 5.12.3.2 shall not apply to the Employee identified, and the next least senior Regular Appointment Employee shall have her or his workload reduced or be laid off in accordance with this Article.

5.12.3.4 The procedures in Articles 5.12.3.1 through 5.12.3.3 shall be repeated for Regular Appointment Employees in order of least to most seniority for courses in the Department until the need for reductions and/or lay-offs in 5.12.1 is satisfied.

5.12.3.5 If an issue arises as to whether an Employee is qualified to teach a course under Article 5.12.3.3, the PTAC (Article 5.04) and JPAAC procedures (Appendix A) shall apply with the following amendments:

- (i) The matter shall be referred to PTAC immediately;
- (ii) PTAC shall deliver its decision within five (5) Days;
- (iii) If the Employee disagrees with the PTAC decision, she or he may give notice of appeal to JPAAC within three (3) Days; and
- (iv) JPAAC shall deliver its decision within five (5) Days.

5.12.3.5.1 In the event the process set out in Article 5.12.3.5 is invoked by an Employee, all subsequent time limits for course allocations within the affected Department shall be extended accordingly.

5.12.4 An Employee shall be notified in writing stating the reason(s) for the reduction in workload or lay-off. The Union shall also receive a copy of this notice. The Employee shall be notified of any pending reduction or lay-off under this Article four (4) months in advance of the Teaching Year in which the reduction or lay-off will take effect.

5.12.5 In the event that a Regular Appointment Employee is laid off under this Article, the Employer shall place a letter in the Employee's Personnel File stating that the Employee was laid off, and not dismissed under Article 10 (Discipline).

5.12.6 Where there have been workload reductions or lay-offs under this Article and a course becomes available, the most senior qualified Regular Appointment Employee who had her or his workload reduced or was laid off shall have right of first refusal for that course. If additional courses become available, the right of first refusal shall be applied in reverse order of workload reduction and/or lay-off.

5.12.7 If a course(s) assigned to a Regular Appointment Employee is cancelled, Article 9.02 (Course Cancellation) shall apply. In addition, the affected Employee shall have a right of first refusal for a course(s) that becomes available after the cancellation on the same terms as Article 5.12.6.

ARTICLE 6 PROMOTION

6.01 An Employee may apply for promotion in rank by submitting a complete application to the Department Chair on or before November 30.

6.02 Promotion in Rank

Procedures for the promotion of Part-time Employees shall be those specified in the Full-time Agreement.

The File shall contain documents and materials used or to be used in implementing and administering the employment relationship and the relevant terms and conditions of the Collective Agreement. No anonymous material concerning any Employee which cannot be supplied to the Employee shall be kept for inclusion in the Personnel File. Access to an Employee's Personnel File shall be restricted to the Employee and/or her or his duly authorized representative and to authorized representatives of the Employer, or as may be otherwise authorized under this Agreement or by law. The Personnel File and contents may not be removed from the office in which they are held. The Employee may, upon written request to the Director of Human Resources, obtain a copy of any document in her or his Personnel File.

In addition, the Employee may request in writing to the Director of Human Resources that the document or information be removed, corrected or supplemented for clarification. Such requests shall not be arbitrarily denied. Within ten (10) Days of receiving the request, the Director of Human Resources shall first determine whether the impugned document or information is relevant. If it is not relevant, it shall be removed immediately from the Personnel File. If it is relevant but erroneous, inaccurate, or inadequate, the Director of Human Resources shall remove, correct or supplement the document or information as per the Employee's request. If the Director of Human Resources denies the remedy requested by the Employee, the Director shall communicate that decision to the Employee in writing and state the reasons for the denial within ten (10) Days of rendering the decision.

Academic leave is limited to leave without pay for academic reasons. Documents pertaining to other leaves shall be contained in the Personnel File. Only the Employee or duly authorized representatives of the Employer may add materials to the Academic File. The Academic File shall be stored in the office of the Vice-President (Academic and Research), who shall be responsible for ensuring that only authorized documentation is placed on the file.

- 7.02.1.1 The Academic File shall also contain reviews of teaching performance conducted by the departmental Review Committee (Article 8.05.3). The Academic File shall also contain final records of discipline when the discipline is pertinent to the relevant criteria for promotion (Article 6); any other records of discipline shall be placed in the Personnel File. These documents shall remain strictly confidential to the Employer and the Employee, subject to Article 11.01.3.
- 7.02.2 When applying for promotion an Employee shall, on or before the date specified in Full-time Agreement (Article 9.01), submit an application, including, in accordance with Appendix E (Statement of Standards) of the Full-time Agreement, evidence of academic credentials, a curriculum vitae, teaching portfolio, evidence of scholarly contributions, and other supporting documentation.
- 7.02.3 After submission to the Departmental Chair no documentation may be added to or removed from the Employee's application, except by the Employee, without two (2) weeks written notice to the Employee and the written consent of the Employee. Additional materials from sources other than the Employee shall be accompanied by a signed letter from the Employee stating her or his consent to the addition or they shall not be included.
- 7.02.4 In accordance with Article 9.02.6 of the Full-time Agreement, the Chair of the Departmental Committee shall provide the written Departmental report and recommendation to the Vice-President (Academic and Research) and, at the same time, provide a copy to the Employee. The Vice-President (Academic and Research) shall add the written recommendation and statement of reasons of CAPT to the application.
- 7.02.6 Upon completion of the procedures under Article 9 of the Full-time Agreement, the application shall be returned to the Employee, except the curriculum vitae, the report and recommendation from the Departmental Committee and the recommendation and written reasons from CAPT, and the President's decision, all of which shall be added to the Academic File.
- 7.02.7 The President, Vice-President (Academic and Research), and appropriate Dean shall have access to the Employee's Academic File for the purpose of adding material only when such material is authorized for inclusion under this Agreement.
- 7.02.8 Only the Employee or duly authorized representatives of the Employer may have access to the Academic File. The Employer shall keep a record in each Academic File of those individuals who have consulted or added materials to the Academic File, the date on which the file was consulted or had materials added to it, and the title under which the individual consulted the Academic File or added materials to it.

- 7.02.9 An Employee shall have access to her or his Academic File during normal business hours, and in the presence of the Vice-President (Academic and Research) or a person appointed by the Vice-President (Academic and Research) for this purpose, and shall not be allowed to remove the Academic File or any part thereof from the office of the Vice-President (Academic and Research). - 7.02.11 Material may be removed from the Employee's Academic File only by mutual agreement between the Employee and the Vice-President (Academic and Research), or as authorized by this Agreement. An Employee who believes her or his Academic File contains erroneous, inaccurate, inadequate, or irrelevant information may include in the Academic File written comments pertaining to the accuracy, relevance, meaning or incompleteness of the contents of the Academic File. In addition, the Employee may apply to the Vice-President (Academic and Research) to have that material removed, supplemented or corrected. In the event of alleged distortion the Employee shall have the right to provide additional material for inclusion in her or his file. Such requests shall be made in writing to the Vice-President (Academic and Research) and shall be accompanied with reasons why the material is erroneous, inaccurate, inadequate or irrelevant. Such requests shall not be arbitrarily denied. If the Vice-President (Academic and Research) determines that the material should be removed, supplemented or corrected, then the material shall be removed, supplemented or corrected within ten (10) Days of receipt of the Employee's request. If the Vice-President (Academic and Research) determines that the material should not be removed, supplemented or corrected, he or she shall communicate that decision to the Employee in writing and state the reasons for the decision within ten (10) Days of receipt of the Employee's request.
- 7.02.12 The Vice-President (Academic and Research), the appropriate Dean and the President shall have access to an Employee's Academic File for the purpose of assessing an Employee for promotion or leave of absence without pay. To assist CAPT in making its recommendation, the appropriate Dean may inform the other members of CAPT of any information contained in the Academic File, other than final records of discipline or confidential medical information. The President may rely on all information contained in the Academic File and application in making his or her decision regarding promotion. If the President rejects the CAPT recommendation as a result of information contained in the Academic File that was not disclosed to CAPT, including information regarding discipline and / or confidential medical information, he or she may advise CAPT of that fact.
- 7.02.13 In the event of a grievance, the grievor shall have access in the manner indicated in Article 11.01.3 to the application and the Academic Files for Employees for whom the CAPT has made recommendations on promotion since its establishment.

ARTICLE 8 EVALUATION

8.01 The Parties agree that reviews of teaching performance serve to ensure a high quality of instruction for students and promote continued growth and confidence in teaching.

8.02 Review Committee

8.02.1 Reviews of teaching for Employees shall be conducted by the Department Chair and one other tenured/tenure track member of the Department. In cases where the Department does not have sufficient numbers of tenured/tenure track members to meet this requirement, additional reviewers shall be selected by agreement between the Department and the appropriate Dean.

8.02.2 It is the responsibility of the reviewers to declare cases of conflict of interest. Where one or both declares a conflict of interest, alternate reviewers shall be selected by agreement between the Department and the appropriate Dean.

8.02.3 The Department Chair shall notify the Employee of the list of reviewers. Where the Employee perceives a conflict of interest, the Employee shall state the reasons for the conflict of interest in writing to the appropriate Dean within five (5) Days of receipt of the notification. If the appropriate Dean deems the conflict of interest to exist, an alternate reviewer(s) shall be selected by agreement between the Department and the appropriate Dean.

8.03 Relevant Considerations for the Review of Teaching Performance

8.03.1 Considerations for determining whether teaching performance is satisfactory or unsatisfactory include:

- (a) command over subject matter;
- (b) familiarity with recent developments in subject areas;
- (c) class preparedness;
- (d) course content and material; and
- (e) the elements of Article 9.05 (Professional Responsibilities and Workload).

8.04 Schedule of Reviews

8.04.1 Teaching reviews for Employees shall be conducted according to the following schedule:

- (a) at the conclusion of a Schedule A Probationary period, as specified in Article 5.02.1 a);
- (b) within the twelve (12) month period prior to the start of a Regular Appointment, as specified in Article 5.02.1 d) (i);
- (c) every five (5) years after the initial appointment, unless more frequent reviews are warranted.

The need for more frequent reviews shall be determined through consultation between the appropriate Dean, the Chair, and the Employee.

8.05 Procedures for Reviews

8.05.1 The Employee and the Department Chair shall be notified by the appropriate Dean eight (8) weeks in advance of the date when the review of the Employee's teaching performance is to be completed. The JPAAC shall consist of four (4) members. Two (2) members shall be appointed by the Union from among its Members, and two (2) non-Union members shall be appointed by the Employer. The term of service for all members shall be for one (1) year, and can be renewed at the discretion of the respective Parties. It is the responsibility of the JPAAC members to declare cases of conflict of interest, which may include, but are not limited to, a member of the JPAAC hearing her/his own appeal or that of a member of her/his family, or that of an appellant in the same Department. In such cases, the Member shall be replaced by an alternate selected by the JPAAC. The Vice-President (Academic and Research) shall Chair the JPAAC. If the Vice-President (Academic and Research) declares a conflict of interest or the members of the JPAAC determine that the Vice-President (Academic and Research) is in a conflict of interest with respect to a particular appeal, the members of the JPAAC shall select a Chair who is external to the University.

1. When a Member is deemed unqualified to teach a course by the Department, she or he has the right to appeal to the JPAAC in accordance with Article 5.07 (Appeals Process) of the Part-time Collective Agreement.
 - 1.1 The appropriate Dean shall inform any Member deemed unqualified to teach a course under Article 5.06.1 within five (5) Days of receiving the appropriate documentation from the Departmental Part-time Appointments Committee. The appropriate Dean shall provide the Member with the reasons given by the Departmental Part-time Appointments Committee deeming the Member to be unqualified according to the criteria specified under Article 5.03.1. The Member may give notice of appeal to the appropriate Dean within ten (10) Days of receipt of the notice by the appropriate Dean.
 - 1.2 A copy of the notice of appeal shall be forwarded by the appropriate Dean to the JPAAC. The Chair of the JPAAC shall request a written submission from the Member specifying the grounds for the appeal.
 - 1.3 The grounds for the appeal are limited to errors in assessing qualifications as outlined in Article 5.03.1 of the Part-time Collective Agreement. Any allegation that the Part-time Collective Agreement has been violated is outside of the jurisdiction of the JPAAC, and can only proceed according to the provisions of Article 11 (Grievance and Arbitration).
 - 1.4 In order to assist the JPAAC in determining whether errors in assessing qualifications have been made, the JPAAC may solicit opinion from specialists in the appropriate discipline from outside the University.
2. The JPAAC shall:
 - (a) elect a Secretary;
 - (b) convene within five (5) Days of notice of request for appeal;
 - (c) have access to all documentation relevant to the appeal, including minutes from the Departmental Part-time Appointments Committee;

- (d) meet with the Chair of the Departmental Part-time Appointments Committee, the member involved if she or he so wishes and any other individual the JPAAC deems appropriate;
 - (e) keep minutes of all its meetings;
 - (f) shall arrive at a decision by open vote. The Chair shall vote only in the event of a tie vote, in which case she/he shall cast the deciding vote;
 - (g) render a decision to either uphold or to deny the appeal within five (5) Days of convening;
 - (h) give a detailed report of its decision to the Member involved, the Chair of the Department, the Chair of the Departmental Part-time Appointments Committee, the appropriate Dean, and the Union.
- 2.1 The Member involved has the right to appear before the Committee accompanied by a Union member chosen by her/him to assist in her/his presentation and to speak on her/his behalf.
 - 2.2 The proceedings of the JPAAC shall be strictly confidential to that Committee. All correspondence on behalf of the JPAAC shall be agreed to by that Committee. All communications concerning the appeal to/or from the JPAAC, the Chair of the Departmental Part-time Appointments Committee, and/or the appellant shall be in writing or presented before the JPAAC. All documentation related to the JPAAC, including appeals, shall be kept in the Vice-President (Academic and Research)'s office in a JPAAC file.
 - 2.3 The decision of the JPAAC is not itself subject to further appeal. It may be grieved if there is a violation of the Part-time Collective Agreement.
 - 2.4 If the appeal is successful, the appellant shall be deemed qualified and awarded a section of the course. In the event that a section of the course is not available, the appellant shall be deemed qualified and awarded a full stipend and one (1) seniority point.
 - 2.4.1 In the event that there are two (2) or more appeals of the same course in the same Department that are upheld by the JPAAC, all successful appellants shall be deemed qualified to teach the course. However, compensation shall only be awarded to the appellant with the highest departmental seniority.
3. At the conclusion of its second appeal, the JPAAC shall review its operating procedures, with a view to making recommendations to the Parties. In conducting this review, the members of the JPAAC shall consult with the Parties on the parameters of the review.
