Carolyn Layden-Stevenson Distinguished Alumni Awards

NOMINATION PACKAGE

ANNUAL DEADLINE : APRIL 15

St. Thomas University and the St. Thomas University Alumni Association are pleased to accept nominations for the Carolyn Layden-Stevenson Distinguished Alumni Awards.

CAROLYN LAYDEN-STEVENSON DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARDS

The Distinguished Alumni Awards recognize outstanding accomplishments of living STU alumni who have earned prominence as a result of their outstanding professional achievements and/or service to society.

The awards are named in memory of St. Thomas University alumna Carolyn Layden-Stevenson, a much admired and accomplished lawyer, judge, and educator.

The Carolyn Layden-Stevenson Distinguished Alumni Awards are a testament to social justice and the value and impact of a liberal arts education, two values which Carolyn cherished and that are embodied in STU Alumni around the world.

NOMINATION GUIDELINES

- Complete the Nomination form
- Provide a brief summary (500 words or less) of the Nominee's extraordinary achievements or service to society. Consider the following questions:
  - How are the Nominee's achievements exceptional?
  - Why does the individual merit the Alumni Association's highest honour?
  - In what capacities has the Nominee contributed to society and/or served the community?
  - In what ways can the Nominee be considered an inspiration to current students?
- Please include a brief biographical summary including education, career (positions held, including professional, and volunteer) official honours/awards.
- Attach letter(s) of reference in support of this nomination. (The Nominator may also serve as a reference)

Nominations close on April 15

The recipient will be selected by a joint STU-STUAA selection committee, with the awards to be bestowed each Fall.
