

Request to Move into Residence Early

Residence will officially open on August 30th (1st year students) OR September 3rd (returning students). Requests to move in early must be submitted by August 20th at 12:00 noon in order to be considered.

PLEASE NOTE: Your residence meal plan will not be active until August 30th when the Forest Hill and George Martin dining halls officially open for the academic year. Moving into residence early means you will be responsible for your own food prior to August 30th. For your convenience, debit/cash is accepted at our on campus Tim Hortons outlet which is located in Sir James Hall. <https://stuca.campusdish.com/>

The Residence Life Office will review your request and respond to you within 48 hours with the outcome of your request.

The university residences are the property of St. Thomas University and residents are subject to the University's rules and regulations.
