

St. Thomas
UNIVERSITY

Policy on University Property

St. Thomas University recognizes its obligation to provide and maintain an environment that fosters the growth and development of the intellect, character, and self-esteem of all those with whom it comes in contact. It is assumed that all people of good faith will subscribe to such aims and will guide their own behaviour in ways that will permit these ends to be achieved. The freedom that is an integral part of the University environment carries with it the concomitant duty and responsibility to behave in a manner that respects the rights and autonomy of others.

To ensure that it can provide a safe and secure environment, St. Thomas University declares that it will not tolerate any behaviour that threatens this environment and that it will take immediate action to remedy such situations. These remedies include not only administrative procedures and procedures set out in collective agreements but also such procedures as may be available through the campus security Department, through the criminal justice system, and through federal and provincial human rights legislation.
